

ERICK J. BERMUDEZ

135 Parkwood Rd Rochester NY · 585-746-0493

Erickbermudez96@yahoo.com

Seeking opportunity to prove efficiency and unsurpassed work ethic within a laborer position. A position where I can utilize my skill set as well as advance my knowledge in the maintenance field.

EXPERIENCE

APRIL 2020- PRESENT

Remodeler, SASR

Worked on remodeling stores, painting, drywall, install shelving, cleaning,

MARCH 2017 – DECEMBER 2019

ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES ROCHESTER GENERAL EMERGENCY DEPARTMENT

WAXING FLOORS, CLEANING ROOMS.

UNIT SECRETARY, ROCHESTER GENERAL EMERGENCY DEPARTMENT

My responsibilities included checking my patients in. Along with that I would set up their transportation, file paperwork, and call the necessary on-call doctors for the attending doctors when needed.

MAY 2016 – FEBRUARY 2017

DRIVER, BOARS HEAD

My job responsibilities would consist of packing our truck full of our products and delivering to all of our stores in North Carolina. I would also have to take inventory and set up our cases to our highest standards.

AUGUST 2013 – MAY 2016

SECURITY OFFICER, ROCHESTER CITY SCHOOL DISTRICT

My daily responsibilities included making sure all the kids in the school made it to their classrooms safe, while maintaining their safety when they went outside. I would also stay after school during their activities to make sure they got to their form of transportation safely.

2007 – 2013

During this time period I was a college student trying to figure out what I wanted to do and be. Along the way I had a handful of jobs that gave me great experience. Such as being a manager at McDonalds to altering tuxedos and Tuxedo junctions.

EDUCATION

2008-2010

ASSOCIATES IN EDUCATION, FINGER LAKES COMMUNITY COLLEGE

During this time, I was taking classes to become a gym teacher. I had a 3.00 GPA.

AUGUST 2017

MEDICAL BILLING AND CODING, BRYANT AND STRANTON

My GPA was a 3.00 and I was very close to finishing. I plan to start back up to finish my last classes once I get everything together.

SKILLS

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |   |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Knowledge of applicable safety rules and regulations</li> <li>• My computer skills are very strong.</li> <li>• I can also multitask during very stressful situations</li> <li>• I am a great team player</li> <li>• Always willing to learn and be taught new trades.</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Organized</li> <li>• Keeping a positive &amp; optimistic mindset</li> <li>• Self-Motivated</li> <li>Dry wall work</li> <li>Some electrical</li> <li>Painting</li> <li>Hot water tank replacement</li> </ul> | • |
| •                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | •                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | • |

ACTIVITIES

I used to run track in high school and got a scholarship to run in college. After my injury I decided to coach middle and high school track teams. I also coached the baseball, volleyball, basketball, and football teams. Also did security for after school activities during my days as a safety officer for the city school district.