Part Two - Applicant's Attitudes

Introduction

This report provides information on the four Attitude Scales (Integrity, Substance Abuse, Reliability and Work Ethic). Each attitude is represented by a graph. The paragraph below each graph describes the applicant's attitude.

Section I - Attitude Scores

Integrity - Adherence to moral and ethical principles acceptable in the workplace

While Joey tends to recognize the ownership of the property of others, sometimes he may be rather accepting of unauthorized "borrowing."

Substance Abuse - Attitudes toward substance abuse in the workplace.

Joey appears to be very tolerant of substance abuse related behaviors in the workplace.

Reliability - Attitudes concerning following procedures, dealing with authority figures and working positively with others in the workplace.

In general, Joey appears capable of trusting the intentions of others. However, some situations may weaken this trust.

Work Ethic - Belief in the value of work and appropriate supervisory relationships in the workplace.

Joey may feel uncomfortable about "petty" restrictions on his personal autonomy like being to work on time or complying with specific procedures.

Distortion for this assessment is within the acceptable range.
