Memo to File

To: Ann Maynard

From: Stephen Short

Date: 26 Aug 19

Subject: Lamont Valion

Opening: Termination of Lamont Valion.

Summary: On 15 Jul we received word that Lamont's MVR was not acceptable per Hartford guidelines (motor vehicle insurance provider). Lamont and I met on the same day, and he was informed that he could not drive for us until such a time as the insurance provider would agree to carry him on our policy. I requested he provide us a copy of his driving abstract to which he agreed and did provide the week of 30 July.

On 7 August, Lamont and I met again and discussed Lamont attending a safe driver course. He related that he had already looked into both online and in-person classes and was planning on attending a course the following weekend. We also spoke about Lamont completing the JU Online Counter IQ course. He related that he was having trouble logging into his account from his home computer. Together we verified he was using the correct login information and reset his password. He was successful in logging into his account from the warehouse.

On 14 August we meet again. Lamont related that he was registered for a safe driver class that was being held the following weekend and would provide us with the completion certificate and any other relevant information. He also related that he still could not log into JU Online from his home computer and volunteered that he would bring his personal laptop in for assistance from someone here. We agreed to meet again 21 August.

On Sunday 18 August, Lamont called me at home to relate that he is still could not get into JU online. I reiterated my willingness to help him with his person computer, to what extent I could. No mention of the Safe Driver course was made.

We did not meet on the 21st. To date, Lamont has not provided proof that he has successfully complete a Safe Driver course, nor has he enrolled or completed any JU Online course since 29 June 17.

Conclusion: Lamont's inability to be listed with our insurance provider makes him incapable of performing the duties for which he was hired. He does not have the necessary skills or knowledge to transfer to a counter position, nor has he taken steps to rectify or improve his situation. We have no recourse but to proceed with termination.
