Part Two - Applicant's Attitudes

Introduction

This report provides information on the four Attitude Scales (Integrity, Substance Abuse, Reliability and Work Ethic). Each attitude is represented by a graph. The paragraph below each graph describes the applicant's attitude.

Section I - Attitude Scores

Integrity - Adherence to moral and ethical principles acceptable in the workplace

Don appears quite lenient concerning theft on the job, especially as it concerns the ownership of property and assets of a company.

Substance Abuse - Attitudes toward substance abuse in the workplace.

While Mr. Pizzenti possesses a few tolerances concerning drug use at the workplace, he is likely to acknowledge the importance of sobriety for safety and efficiency reasons.

Reliability - Attitudes concerning following procedures, dealing with authority figures and working positively with others in the workplace.

In most cases, Don is trusting of others, but when he perceives reasonable doubts about their intentions or authority, he is likely to express a little caution.

Work Ethic - Belief in the value of work and appropriate supervisory relationships in the workplace.

It appears that Don understands the value of a strong work ethic, but not to the exclusion of the other priorities in his personal life.

Distortion for this assessment is within the acceptable range.

Interview Questions

The following interview questions are presented for your consideration as you interview Mr. Pizzenti. Note that the "Critical Issue" statements are written to the interviewer and should not be asked of the applicant.

Critical Issue: Does the applicant possess an overly careless attitude about rules or procedures concerning company property?

Applicant's Response to: Taking something from your company with the good intention of paying for it later is not the same as stealing. (Mr. Pizzenti agrees)

Interview Questions:

- What's the difference between stealing and taking company property that you pay for later?
- Would you say that your opinion about this is somewhat speculative, or have you done something like this yourself, even though you had an excuse?
- Would you say that some rules concerning taking company property (even if you DO pay for it later) are too strict? Why?

Critical Issue: Does the applicant possess a pessimistic attitude about people or is he merely being pragmatic?

Applicant's Response to: Most people act polite to cover up how they really feel. (Mr. Pizzenti agrees)

Interview Questions:

- Why do you feel that most people act polite to cover up how they really feel?
- Can you give me an example of what you mean?
- Do you use politeness to cover up how you really feel?

Critical Issue: Could this cause serious problems with the other employees?

Applicant's Response to: I prefer to stay out of heated arguments. (Mr. Pizzenti disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- Why do you like heated arguments?
- Any recent examples?
- Who was it with?
- What was the topic? What was the outcome?

Critical Issue: Can the applicant be trusted?

Applicant's Response to: It would bother me to stretch the truth a little. (Mr. Pizzenti disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- What does “bother” mean (i.e. anger, resentment, etc.)?
- When is it okay to stretch the truth a little?
- What is the difference between lying and stretching the truth?
- Recent work related example, consequences.
