Part Two - Applicant's Attitudes

Introduction

This report provides information on the four Attitude Scales (Integrity, Substance Abuse, Reliability and Work Ethic). Each attitude is represented by a graph. The paragraph below each graph describes the applicant's attitude.

Section I - Attitude Scores

Integrity - Adherence to moral and ethical principles acceptable in the workplace

When theft in the workplace becomes an issue, Paul can be disapproving, but may not vocalize his feelings as adamantly as others.

Substance Abuse - Attitudes toward substance abuse in the workplace.

Mr. Fortin does not express any tolerance for drug use, with an unforgiving opinion concerning the consequences thereof.

Reliability - Attitudes concerning following procedures, dealing with authority figures and working positively with others in the workplace.

While Mr. Fortin is generally trusting of others, accepting their intentions at face value, dubious claims and assertions may raise doubts for him.

Work Ethic - Belief in the value of work and appropriate supervisory relationships in the workplace.

Being noted as an individual who respects principled efforts at work is likely to be important to Mr. Fortin. Nonetheless, he may not have a problem with minor liberties taken while accomplishing work.

Distortion for this assessment is within the acceptable range.
