Part Two - Applicant's Attitudes

Introduction

This report provides information on the four Attitude Scales (Integrity, Substance Abuse, Reliability and Work Ethic). Each attitude is represented by a graph. The paragraph below each graph describes the applicant's attitude.

Section I - Attitude Scores

Integrity - Adherence to moral and ethical principles acceptable in the workplace

Colin rarely, if ever, states any tolerance of those who willingly “borrow” or outright steal the property or assets of others.

Substance Abuse - Attitudes toward substance abuse in the workplace.

Mr. McKelvey is highly intolerant of substance abuse in the workplace. With few, if any, exceptions, he acknowledges the importance of sobriety for safety and efficiency reasons.

Reliability - Attitudes concerning following procedures, dealing with authority figures and working positively with others in the workplace.

Mr. McKelvey rarely expresses a concern about the motivations of others. It is likely that this is reflected in an attitude of reliability and acceptance when he works with others.

Work Ethic - Belief in the value of work and appropriate supervisory relationships in the workplace.

Colin emphasizes accountability and strong work ethics. His stance is consistently in favor of discipline.

Distortion for this assessment is within the acceptable range.
