Part Two - Applicant's Attitudes

Introduction

This report provides information on the four Attitude Scales (Integrity, Substance Abuse, Reliability and Work Ethic). Each attitude is represented by a graph. The paragraph below each graph describes the applicant's attitude.

Section I - Attitude Scores

Integrity - Adherence to moral and ethical principles acceptable in the workplace

Generally minor offenses, like borrowing something from the office, may not exasperate him too greatly. Determining what Mr. Cardarelli considers to be a minor infraction of theft (or borrowing) in the workplace may be of interest.

Substance Abuse - Attitudes toward substance abuse in the workplace.

Zachary generally considers the situation before taking sides concerning on-the-job drug abuse, but may occasionally side with more tolerant attitudes.

Reliability - Attitudes concerning following procedures, dealing with authority figures and working positively with others in the workplace.

Mr. Cardarelli does not typically express a willingness to completely accept the intentions of others or conform to the authority of his supervisors.

Work Ethic - Belief in the value of work and appropriate supervisory relationships in the workplace.

Being noted as an individual who respects principled efforts at work is likely to be important to Mr. Cardarelli. Nonetheless, he may not have a problem with minor liberties taken while accomplishing work.

Distortion for this assessment is within the acceptable range.
