Part Two - Applicant's Attitudes

Introduction

This report provides information on the four Attitude Scales (Integrity, Substance Abuse, Reliability and Work Ethic). Each attitude is represented by a graph. The paragraph below each graph describes the applicant's attitude.

Section I - Attitude Scores

Integrity - Adherence to moral and ethical principles acceptable in the workplace

In most cases, Joseph disapproves of borrowing items from the workplace, but an occasional minor infraction may not seem too serious to him.

Substance Abuse - Attitudes toward substance abuse in the workplace.

Joseph generally considers the situation before taking sides concerning on-the-job drug abuse, but may occasionally side with more tolerant attitudes.

Reliability - Attitudes concerning following procedures, dealing with authority figures and working positively with others in the workplace.

Generally, Joseph expresses trust and a willingness to get along with others. However, it is evident that higher levels of confidence in the motives of others may be more difficult for him to develop.

Work Ethic - Belief in the value of work and appropriate supervisory relationships in the workplace.

In general, Mr. DiRaimo endorses quality performance and a faithful adherence to typical office procedures. However, he may consider insignificant breaches of protocol to be a minor concern.

Distortion for this assessment is within the acceptable range.

Interview Questions

The following interview questions are presented for your consideration as you interview Mr. DiRaimo. Note that the "Critical Issue" statements are written to the interviewer and should not be asked of the applicant.

Critical Issue: Is the applicant blatantly distrustful or capable of excessive untruthfulness?

Applicant's Response to: Most people are honest and can be trusted. (Mr. DiRaimo disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- Why do you believe that most people are dishonest and can not be trusted?
- Can you share a personal experience?

Critical Issue: Is the applicant's view based on a pessimistic outlook or is he simply being bluntly honest?

Applicant's Response to: Most employees get raises and promotions by working hard. (Mr. DiRaimo disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- If it is not by working hard, how do most employees get raises and promotions?
- Have you ever received a raise or promotion that was not related to working hard?

Section II - Summary Graph

The following scores for Mr. DiRaimo are summarized in this graph. Higher numbers suggest a lower risk factor.

Integrity

Adherence to moral and ethical principles acceptable in the workplace

Substance Abuse

Attitudes toward substance abuse in the workplace.

Reliability

Attitudes concerning following procedures, dealing with authority figures and working positively with others in the workplace.

Work Ethic

Belief in the value of work and appropriate supervisory relationships in the workplace.

Notice Regarding This Report

The results from this assessment should not be used as the sole determination whether to hire or not hire this individual. One must review previous work experience, the skills required by the job as well as personal references. When the safety of others must be considered, a background check, a drug screening and a physical from a medical doctor should all be considered. This assessment does not measure violent tendencies, psychotic conditions, sexual deviance or political opinions and cannot be used in identifying these conditions or to predict any associated behaviors. Please consult the User's Guide for additional instruction on using these results.
