Introduction

This report provides information on the four Attitude Scales (Integrity, Substance Abuse, Reliability and Work Ethic). Each attitude is represented by a graph. The paragraph below each graph describes the applicant's attitude.

Section I - Attitude Scores

Integrity - Adherence to moral and ethical principles acceptable in the workplace

When theft in the workplace becomes an issue, Bryan can be disapproving, but may not vocalize his feelings as adamantly as others.

Substance Abuse - Attitudes toward substance abuse in the workplace.

In general, Bryan disapproves of on-the-job drug use, but may not be as vocal in his condemnation as others.

Reliability - Attitudes concerning following procedures, dealing with authority figures and working positively with others in the workplace.

He accepts the motives of others and expresses faith in their intentions.

Work Ethic - Belief in the value of work and appropriate supervisory relationships in the workplace.

Bryan reports taking a very serious attitude concerning what is expected of him at work.

Distortion for this assessment is within the acceptable range.

Section II - Summary Graph

The following scores for Mr. Forino are summarized in this graph. Higher numbers suggest a lower risk factor.

Integrity

Adherence to moral and ethical principles acceptable in the workplace

Substance Abuse

Attitudes toward substance abuse in the workplace.

Reliability

Attitudes concerning following procedures, dealing with authority figures and working positively with others in the workplace.
