Physical Demands & Work Environment

The physical demands and work environment characteristics described here are representative of those an employee encounters while performing the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

Physical Demands: While performing the duties of this job, the employee is regularly required to sit or stand; walk; use hands to handle or feel; reach with hands and arms; climb or balance; talk or hear; and lift up to 20 pounds. The employee is occasionally required to stoop, kneel, crouch, crawl or smell. Specific vision requirements are close vision, distance vision, depth perception, and the ability to adjust focus.

Office Environment: Typical office building with most work performed at a desk using equipment such as PCs, phones, scanners, copiers, faxes, and paper files.

The Accounting and Financial Analyst will maintain the strictest confidentiality on all corporate matters including, but not limited to: marketing strategies, operational structures, financial performance data and all subjects that may have an adverse effect on the company in the marketplace if they were made known outside the company.
