

Employees should not comment to, harass, or discriminate against another employee, client, or vendor based on any protected category, including but not limited to, the following grounds:

- Gender
- Race
- Sexual orientation
- Age
- Religious beliefs
- Disability
- Creed
- Color
- Sex
- Marital status
- National origin
- Military status/leave
- Genetic predisposition or carrier status
- Domestic violence victim status
- Arrest/conviction record

The following are examples of behavior which may constitute harassment. These examples are not exhaustive:

- Verbal harassment (e.g., jokes, derogatory comments)
- Written harassment (e.g., emails, text messages)
- Physical harassment (e.g. shoving)
- Visual displays (e.g., posters, graphics)

Reproductive Decision-Making Protected

Discrimination based on an employee's or a dependent's reproductive health decision-making is prohibited. There will be no accessing an employee's personal information (without the employee's prior informed affirmative written consent) regarding the employee's or the employee's depending's reproductive health decision-making, including but not limited to, the decision to use or access a particular drug, device or medical service.

The Firm will not discriminate nor take any retaliatory personnel action against an employee with respect to compensation, terms, conditions or privileges of employment because of the employee's (or his or her dependent's) reproductive health decision. Employees are also protected from retaliation for exercising their rights under this law. Employees aggrieved by a violation of this policy may seek reinstatement, back pay, benefits, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in any court of competent jurisdiction.