

Training Evaluation Form

Date: 10-05-2021

Trainer: Ann Maynard

Instructions: Please indicate your level of agreement with the statements listed below.

	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
1. The objectives of the training were clearly defined.	☒	☐	☐	☐	☐
2. Participation and interaction were encouraged.	☒	☐	☐	☐	☐
3. The topics covered were relevant to me.	☒	☐	☐	☐	☐
4. The content was organized and easy to follow.	☒	☐	☐	☐	☐
5. This training experience will be useful in my work.	☒	☐	☐	☐	☐
6. The trainer was knowledgeable about the training topics.	☒	☐	☐	☐	☐
7. The trainer was well prepared.	☒	☐	☐	☐	☐
8. The training objectives were met.	☒	☐	☐	☐	☐
9. The time allotted for the training was sufficient.	☒	☐	☐	☐	☐
10. The meeting room and facilities were adequate and comfortable.	☒	☐	☐	☐	☐

Thank you for your feedback!

Print Your Name: Jaime Burgos Date: 10-05-2021

Sexual Harassment Quiz

True or False

1. Sexual harassment complaints are generally false or unjustified. false
2. Sexual harassment can occur outside the work site and still be considered work related. Incidents that occur at retirement parties and office socials or in training true are some of the situations where work related harassment occurs.
3. Terms of endearment with co-workers, i.e. "honey," "dear" are considered verbal true abuse and charges can be brought up against the employee.
4. Women in professional jobs (teachers, lawyers, engineers, doctors, etc.) are not as likely to be sexually harassed as women in blue-collar jobs (factory workers, secretaries, truck drivers, etc.) false
5. If he didn't like the sexual attention, but she meant it only as flirting or joking, then false it was not sexual harassment.
6. Sexual harassment is not limited to physical contact. It can occur any time that an individual is uncomfortable with another person's approaches, comments or discussions. True
7. Due to strict privacy laws, supervisors cannot monitor employee email or be found liable for sexual harassment via email by their employees. false
8. Sexual harassment in the workplace is a women's issue. false
9. Quid Pro Quo harassment is a form of sexual harassment when there is a request or demand of sexual favors in exchange for employment benefits or threatening reprisals if the favors are not given. True
10. Friendly flirting is not sexual harassment when flirting is practiced between mutually consenting individuals who are equal in power or authority. True
11. Employees claiming sexual harassment who are aware of but fail to take advantage of company policies or resources designed to prevent, correct or eliminate harassment have much weaker cases than those who do. True
12. In order for it to be determined sexual harassment, the victim has to be of the opposite sex of the harasser. false
13. An employee witnesses another employee being harassed. Even though this involved a co-worker, the witness can be considered a victim in this case. false.