MANAGEMENT: OPEN COMMENTS

- ▶ The amount of work being done by different employees with the same title is night and day and management really doesn't care
- ▶ Going to expectations... We were given our quotas without knowledge of equipment and parts outages. So I think it would have been appropriate to probably re-align the numbers knowing that we would be losing 20-30% of equipment's sales based on inventory levels. For most of 2021 the Goodman line has had HUGE holes in it. And this is our main line to anyone "new". It makes going after "new business" very difficult.
- ▶ My first answers do not apply to my direct supervisor, I feel the lack of value and Lack of Positive culture some from Higher.
- ▶ Communications from my direct supervisor are very effective, and informative. I would really like to see some sort of evaluation process to give direct feedback for individual employees, with incentives for performance. IE: raises.
- ▶ Management is supportive and constructive. They care about quality of life both at work and outside of work.
- ▶ My boss works long hard hours with no thanks for what he does and he never works from home.
- ▶ They do great with what they have.
- ▶ Some good changes are taking place. The warehouse is more organized and easier to find parts. Having a designated driver makes us more competitive and allows for smoother receiving and getting orders out the door. Placing orders is more streamlined. Warranties are current. Finances seem to be getting cleaned up. A new phone system is in the works. A new salesperson is on board. We have a knowledgeable HR professional. It feels like a more progressive atmosphere at this time.

MANAGEMENT: TAKEAWAYS

- ▶ Team members appear to have a good relationship with their direct manager
- ▶ Continue with/improve on ensuring teams/individuals feel valued and invested in

- ▶ Some employees do just enough while others go above and beyond....The employees that do just enough are treated the same as the employees that go above and beyond....problem is....there is no benefit for putting forth extra effort and there is no repercussions for an employee to be lazy.. makes for a miserable work place.
- ▶ I feel like many of the people in the branches have adapted a great work ethic and want to see Johnstone succeed, but I do feel like some people embrace the past and what we used to do, not looking to the future and what we can do.

- ▶ There is no “training”, just what you take on yourself with very little guidance.
- ▶ Would like a career plan. Would love to see rewards, recognition, plaques, certifications for achievements, employee of the month, company parties, something to motivate the workforce.
- ▶ There is not a clear path to training and on-boarding, this would go along way to making sure people we are putting in place are able to do the job and if they could be upward mobile.
- ▶ There isn't any clear path for advances, or wage increases. Training is available, but with no clear incentive, or reward. I believe we all want our company to succeed, both as a business, and personally.
- ▶ It is a small company, so opportunities are few but the ones that are there are able to be explored.
- ▶ We do need to make some improvements on how we train people, especially new ones. There have been some improvements in this area, but still more are needed. IDPs would also be a good step as they work at an individual level and help employees work towards their professional goals.
