NOTICE TO EMPLOYERS DEFAULTING IN PREMIUM PAYMENT
UNDER NEW YORK STATE LABOR LAW SECTION 217

Section 217 of the Labor Law requires that you notify your employees or group members of our intention to cancel your contract. You must provide a copy of this notice, together with a cover letter advising of our intent to terminate the contract, to each certificate holder who resides in New York. These documents must be either:

- 1. hand delivered by you to the certificate holder at the certificate holder’s place of employment (e.g., by including the notice in the certificate holder’s pay envelope) at least nine days prior to the intended date of termination shown on this notice; or
- 2. mailed by you to each certificate holder at the certificate holder’s last known residential address at least nine days prior to the intended date of termination shown on this notice.

You must also post copies of this notice and the cover letter referenced above in conspicuous locations chosen as most likely to give notice to the certificate holders. The notice must be posted at least nine days prior to the intended date of termination shown on this notice.

The notice requirements set forth above (that is, providing and posting a copy of this notice and the required cover letter) do not apply if, within ten days after receipt of this notice, you have taken steps to render the intended termination null and void (by paying the required premium) or you have contracted with another insurer to replace the terminated coverage with similar and continuous coverage. If you have replaced the current coverage with similar coverage through another carrier, you must file an affidavit with the Commissioner of Labor and Superintendent of Insurance to that effect and you must provide a written notice to the certificate holders of the name of the new insurance carrier. Affidavits filed with the Commissioner of Labor must reference section 217 of the Labor Law and be addressed to Director of Labor Standards, Department of Labor, Agency Building 12, State Office Building Campus, Albany, NY 12240. Affidavits filed with the Superintendent of Insurance must reference section 217 of the Labor Law and 11 NYCRR 55.2 and be addressed to Chief, Health Bureau, New York State Insurance Department, One Commerce Plaza, Albany, NY 12257.

Any covered person who is totally disabled at the time of termination may be given an extension of benefits under certain circumstances (refer to the contract section entitled “Continued Benefits After Termination”). Your employees or group members also have conversion privileges (refer to section in your contract entitled “Conversion Privilege”). They must notify us directly within 45 days of termination, or within 45 days of your notice whichever is later, but in no event later than 90 days after termination.

PLEASE CONSULT YOUR LEGAL COUNSEL TO ASSURE ALL REQUIREMENTS ARE MET
