PART TWO

APPLICANT'S ATTITUDES

Introduction

This report provides information on the four Attitude Scales (Integrity, Substance Abuse, Reliability and Work Ethic). Each attitude is represented by a graph. The paragraph below each graph describes the applicant's attitude.

Section I - Attitude Scores

INTEGRITY

Adherence to moral and ethical principles acceptable in the workplace

When theft in the workplace becomes an issue, John can be disapproving, but may not vocalize his feelings as adamantly as others.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE

Attitudes toward substance abuse in the workplace.

While Mr. Disque possesses a few tolerances concerning drug use at the workplace, he is likely to acknowledge the importance of sobriety for safety and efficiency reasons.

RELIABILITY

Attitudes concerning following procedures, dealing with authority figures and working positively with others in the workplace.

In general, John appears capable of trusting the intentions of others. However, some situations may weaken this trust.

WORK ETHIC

Belief in the value of work and appropriate supervisory relationships in the workplace.

John emphasizes accountability and strong work ethics. His stance is consistently in favor of discipline.

Distortion for this assessment is within the acceptable range.

Interview Questions

The following interview questions are presented for your consideration as you interview Mr. Disque. Note that the "Critical Issue" statements are written to the interviewer and should not be asked of the applicant.

Critical Issue: Can the applicant be counted on to tell the truth?

Applicant's Response to: Most people will lie in order to get ahead. (Mr. Disque agrees)

Interview Questions:

- Can you think of a recent work-related example?
- Is it okay to lie? Under what circumstances?

Critical Issue: Is the applicant's view based on a pessimistic outlook or is he simply being bluntly honest?

Applicant's Response to: Most employees get raises and promotions by working hard. (Mr. Disque disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- If it is not by working hard, how do most employees get raises and promotions?
- Have you ever received a raise or promotion that was not related to working hard?

Section II - Summary Graph
