This report is intended to help you choose the candidate(s) who may be the best fit for the position of Office Assistant. The Performance Model for this position reflects the attributes typical of high performers in this position. Elanie Rodriguez's personalized information will be compared to the Performance Model, giving you a detailed understanding of how well-suited she may be to this role.

What's in this report?
RESULTS SUMMARY Candidate's results from the assessment compared to the Performance Model	PERFORMANCE MODEL Range of scores typical for success in the position, with scale and job fit interpretation	INTERVIEW QUESTIONS Series of personalized questions based on the candidate's fit to the Performance Model

What is a Performance Model?

The Performance Model for Office Assistant provides the recommended range of skills and behaviors for the job. This report compares Elanie Rodriguez's assessment results to the range of scores to show how well she might fit the position. The Performance Model includes:

THINKING STYLE

- Thinking Style is the ability to process information.
- It includes problem-solving, communication, interaction, and learning skills.
- Results are illustrated on scales ranging from 1 to 10.
- A higher score is not necessarily the best indicator of on-the-job performance.

BEHAVIORAL TRAITS

- Behavioral Traits are commonly observed actions that help define who someone is.
- Each scale is defined by two opposing, but equally valuable, end points.
- One side of the continuum is not better than the other.

INTERESTS

- This section may indicate a person's motivation and potential satisfaction with various jobs.
- These are ranked in order from the person's highest- to lowest-scoring interest.

Distortion was not detected in this report. What does that mean?

Some candidates may answer in a way that is socially desirable or to make themselves look better, rather than respond candidly and risk disapproval. Based on her assessment results, it appears that Elanie answered candidly.

Elanie: Fits the Performance Model.

Judgment

Basis for forming opinions and making decisions

Ideal Candidate: Balances objective information and instincts to make decisions.

Elanie: May be less objective when making decisions than people who have been successful in this position.

INTERESTS

The assessment measures six possible Interests, which appear below from Elanie's highest- to lowest-scoring interest. The top three Interests for the Performance Model are noted. Two-way and three-way ties are indicated if present.

This list of interests is obviously not exhaustive, and because interests are often something that can be satisfied outside of work, they make up only 20% of the candidate's overall job fit score (Thinking and Behavioral each make up 40% of the overall score). Still, a person's interests can sometimes provide insight into how easily motivated he or she will be concerning different tasks, and how much enjoyment he or she may find in a particular role.

ELANIE'S ORDER OF INTERESTS

- Ordered from her highest- to lowest-scoring interest
- Office Assistant Performance Model Interests are indicated
- Ties are indicated if present

Creative

A Creative interest suggests the enjoyment of imaginative and artistic activities. It often involves personal expression, emphasis on aesthetics, and novel ways of solving problems, producing ideas, and designing new things.

Financial/Admin [PERFORMANCE MODEL INTEREST]

A Financial/Admin interest suggests the enjoyment of working with numbers, organizing information, and office routines such as record-keeping and completing paperwork. It could indicate an eye for detail and a desire for accuracy.

People Service [PERFORMANCE MODEL INTEREST]

A People Service interest suggests the enjoyment of collaboration, compromise, and helping others. It may indicate a strong sense of empathy and support and a knack for bringing people together.

TIED

Technical

A Technical interest suggests the enjoyment of learning technical material, interpreting complex information, and solving abstract problems. Individuals with this interest may enjoy working with numbers, data, and/or computer programs.

Mechanical

A Mechanical interest suggests the enjoyment of building and repairing things and working with machinery or tools. Individuals with this interest may like tasks that involve using their hands, being outdoors, and/or breaking a sweat.

Enterprising [PERFORMANCE MODEL INTEREST]

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

Elanie Rodriguez & Office Assistant

CHALLENGE AREAS FOR THIS JOB FIT

Below you will find what could be Elanie's top challenge areas for this position. The selection is based on how Elanie scored on the assessment compared to the specific requirements for Office Assistant.

Verbal Skill

She communicates at a high level and can easily understand complex instructions.

→ Listen for: how much effort she uses to adjust her communication style to the needs of the audience.

1. Tell me about a time when you realized you were speaking at a more advanced level than a colleague could understand. What did you do to communicate your message more clearly?
2. Describe a situation where you had to explain a technical or complex subject to others. What steps did you take to ensure you adequately explained the key points?

Pace

MORE STEADY THAN PERFORMANCE MODEL

She tends to be very patient and good with routine.

→ Listen for: how she uses different strategies for negotiating workload, due dates, and resources.

3. Tell me about a time when you had a lot of work and additional assignments just kept coming. How did you handle the workload?
4. Describe the last time you worked on an assignment that demanded a lot of initiative and self-motivation. What was challenging and what did you enjoy about this experience?

Numeric Reasoning

She can efficiently base her decisions on numerical data.

→ Listen for: how successfully she communicates numerical concepts, or if she gets frustrated when working with people with different numerical skill levels.

5. If you analyze numerical data and find that it calls for a change—such as reallocating resources or adjusting a process—how would you convince others that the change is needed?
6. Tell me about a time you had to use mathematical concepts or reasoning to solve a problem. How did you communicate your message for those with different levels of training or skill?

AREAS OF STRENGTH FOR THIS JOB FIT

Next you will find what could be Elanie's top areas of strength for this position. The selection is based on how Elanie scored on the assessment compared to the specific requirements for Office Assistant.

Numerical Ability

FITS PERFORMANCE MODEL

She may be able to perform more complex calculations.

→ Listen for: her comfort with numerical calculations, including using new methods of calculating data.

7. Describe a situation where you had to consider different types of numerical information. How did you ensure that you understood and correctly applied the most important aspects of the data?
8. How long does it take for you to feel comfortable using new mathematical processes at work?

Assertiveness

FITS PERFORMANCE MODEL

She tends to be fairly comfortable sticking up for her opinions and needs.

→ Listen for: how successfully she determines when to push forward and when to refrain from action.

9. Describe a recent experience where you had to be assertive with a colleague. How did you determine how much you needed to push to get what you needed?
10. When you work with someone who is highly forceful or demanding, what approach do you take to maintain an effective working relationship with this person?

Sociability

FITS PERFORMANCE MODEL

She tends to be fairly introverted and may often keep to herself.

→ Look for: how she recognizes when to be more or less outgoing to fit the needs of the situation.

11. Describe a time when you had to act more or less outgoing than is natural for you. What did you do to adapt?
12. Do you prefer to work with others on assignments or complete tasks by yourself? Tell me about an assignment or project that best fits your work style.

QUESTIONS FOR REMAINING SCALES

You will find suggested interview questions for the remaining scales below.

Verbal Reasoning

FITS PERFORMANCE MODEL

She is capable of discerning the important elements in basic communications.

→ Listen for: how she assesses and applies information for different settings, tasks, and people.

13. Describe a situation in which you received instructions that seemed to lack key steps or were incomplete. What did you do to fix the situation and make sure that you were completing the task correctly?
14. Tell me about a time when you discovered there had been a miscommunication. How did you figure out there was a problem, and what did you do to resolve the issue?

Conformity

MORE STRONG-WILLED THAN PERFORMANCE MODEL

She may question or dispute established procedures and policies on occasion.

→ Listen for: whether she can temper her own opinions and goals without becoming too frustrated or resentful.

15. Tell me about a time when you had to work with a leader you didn't respect. How did that relationship evolve over time?
16. Describe a time when you didn't agree with the direction a project was taking, but couldn't change it. How did you react to that situation?

Outlook

FITS PERFORMANCE MODEL

She tends to be fairly skeptical and often looks for the evidence to back up a claim.

→ Listen for: whether she thinks critically about others' ideas without dismissing them prematurely or accepting them too readily.

17. When considering others' ideas, what steps do you take to evaluate the ideas? Give me some specific examples.
18. What impacts have you seen from a lack of trust in the workplace? What benefits have you seen when trust is high? Give me some examples of both scenarios.

DecisivenessMORE DELIBERATE THAN PERFORMANCE MODEL

She tends to carefully analyze situations in order to make informed decisions.

→ Listen for: her ability to make decisions more quickly when circumstances warrant it.

19. Describe a time when you waited too long to make a decision. What were the consequences? What would you do differently?
20. Would you describe your decision-making style as bold or cautious? Give an example of when it would have been better to take the opposite approach.

AccommodationFITS PERFORMANCE MODEL

She tends to be fairly agreeable and willing to go along with the group.

→ Listen for: how she determines when to state her own position and when to compromise.

21. Which is more important in the workplace—disagreement or compromise? Why? Give me examples from your own experience.
22. How do you typically resolve a conflict between you and a colleague?

IndependenceFITS PERFORMANCE MODEL

She may seek support and is usually ready to accept supervision.

→ Listen for: the level of guidance she prefers and whether she has been satisfied with guidance in the past.

23. For work you've done in the past, when has following a very structured procedure been beneficial? When has it been better to develop your own approach?
24. Describe an example of the ideal level of guidance you received at the start of a new assignment. Tell me about a time when you were frustrated with the level of guidance.

JudgmentMORE INTUITIVE THAN PERFORMANCE MODEL

She probably balances common sense and practical experience to make decisions.

☞ Listen for: her level of frustration when asked to disregard her instincts and base a decision solely on facts.

25. Describe a time when you had to put aside your strong sense of the right direction and make a decision based purely on facts. What happened, and how did you feel about it?
26. What are the benefits of basing decisions on gut instincts? When might this approach be problematic?
