ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

Daniel has decided and informed me that he is retiring and his last day will be Friday July 22nd. I would like to prorate his bonus at that time if possible. He has been an excellent employee and stepped up to every task asked of him. And also that he understood and cared enough about his position and how him leaving could effect the day to day business and his fellow employees so he decided to give a months notice so id have time to fill his position and not be shorthanded.
