Outlined below is information concerning your rights to continue benefits that were in effect while employed by the Company. Please review the following information and contact me should you have any questions.

Should you decide not to extend your health insurance, your coverage in the plan offered by the Company will end on Sunday, July 31, 2022. However, once the appropriate paperwork is completed and premium payments received, your health insurance coverage will be reinstated, retroactive to the date coverage was terminated.

You will have 90 days from your termination date to submit qualified expenses incurred on or before Friday, July 8, 2022, for reimbursement through your HRA with BRI at participantservices@benefitresource.com.
