2. Financial Institution Acknowledgment

Securities are offered by LPL Financial LLC (LPL) and its registered representatives. LPL is a separate registered broker-dealer and registered investment adviser, is not a bank or credit union, and is not affiliated with your financial institution. Your financial institution will not be a party to any agreement between you and LPL.

- The investment products offered by LPL are not insured by the FDIC, NCUA or any federal or state government agency.
- The investments, insurance and annuity products offered by LPL are not obligations of, or guaranteed by, your financial institution or its affiliates.
- Certain certificates of deposit and cash sweep accounts may be insured by the FDIC, NCUA or a federal or state governmental agency.
- Purchasing securities involves investment risk including the possible loss of principal.
- The extension of credit by your financial institution may not be conditioned on the purchase of an insurance product or annuity from LPL or your financial institution. You may purchase insurance or annuities from a provider of your choice.
- Your financial institution and LPL have entered into a marketing agreement which may allow financial institution employees who accept deposits on behalf of the financial institution to be registered and appointed with LPL for the purpose of offering investment and insurance products. The marketing agreement also provides for LPL to compensate your financial institution for the use of its facilities, such that a significant portion of the compensation generated by the sale of securities and insurance products may be paid to your financial institution. Under the agreement, LPL pays your financial institution a portion of any advisory Account Fee between 0% and 100% on advisory accounts referred by your financial institution. All compensation paid to your financial institution under the agreement will be the sole responsibility of LPL, and will not result in any increase in the Account Fee you pay to LPL. In the event that registered representatives are financial institution employees, the financial institution may directly pay, from amounts received from LPL, the registered representatives' compensation in respect of such sales.
- LPL is a member of FINRA and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). SIPC covers losses in investment accounts of up to $500,000 (of which up to $250,000 may be uninvested cash) due to member firm failures and does not cover a decline in the market value of securities. Additional information about SIPC and asset protection may also be found at www.sipc.org.

I hereby certify that I have received the above disclosures orally and in writing and that I have read and completely understand all of the above. I have had any questions regarding this acknowledgment answered to my complete satisfaction.
