

RIA AND PAYMENT INFORMATION FORM
(Client and RIA/IAR must review and sign where applicable)

Complete this form in order to provide information about the company serving as the Plan's (as defined below) Registered Investment Advisor ("RIA")/Investment Advisor Representative employed by the RIA (IAR) and, if applicable, payment instructions from both "Plan Budget Accounts" and "Fees from Trust." The below referenced client ("Client") of ADP, LLC, ("ADP") sponsors the retirement plan designated below ("the Plan") for which ADP provides plan recordkeeping and related services ("Retirement Plan Services"). Client hereby designates the individual listed in section V. as the financial firm and IAR for the Client. Client authorizes payment to the RIA/IAR as described in section V. and VI. Clients may also give the RIA and IAR, and additional advisor contacts in section III. access to ADP's Plan Sponsor Website (the "Web") and Client Service representatives. If Client grants Plan Sponsor Website and Client Service Center access to the IAR, RIA and Advisor's partners, assistants, and related firm (collectively "Advisor Affiliates"), agree to keep the information it obtains pursuant to this authorization confidential and shall not disclose it to any third party except as required by law or expressly authorized by Client. Upon the request of the RIA, IAR, and Advisor's partners, assistants, and related firm (collectively "Advisor Affiliates"), ADP may provide any Plan, participant, or beneficiary (together, "Participants") information that ADP has obtained in the course of performing the services to the Plan through ADP's Retirement Plan Client Service Center, the Web, and/or in electronic format. Client authorizes the name and telephone number of the RIA and IAR to be included on participant statements in section IV if marked. Client acknowledges that the Client Authorized Coordinator is able to assign varying levels of access to the IAR and RIA and modify or revoke access available to the RIA and IAR at any time. Client acknowledges that ADP has provided it with information regarding the "default" levels of access initially established on ADP's systems. Client agrees that it will be responsible for ensuring that each RIA and IAR complies with the same terms and conditions of use of the Web to which Client is bound. Client represents to ADP that the disclosure of any information regarding Client, the Plan or Participants to the RIA and IAR pursuant to this authorization does not violate any applicable state or federal law. Client shall indemnify and hold harmless ADP with respect to any claims, losses, damages or expenses resulting from the disclosure by ADP to the RIA and IAR of any such information. This authorization shall remain in effect unless and until revoked in writing by an authorized representative of Client and delivered to ADP Retirement Services Client Services at Mykteam@ADP.com or 71 Hanover Road, Florham Park, New Jersey 07932-1597. Such notice shall not be effective until ADP has received, and has had a reasonable time to act upon, the notice. Client, IAR, RIA agree that such data shall be used solely in accordance with any agreements between or among them and/or ADP or its affiliates, and that Client, IAR, RIA shall be responsible for ensuring that any such authorized use complies with applicable law, including state or federal privacy laws that apply to Participants. To the extent that such disclosure is deemed by the IAR or RIA to be required by applicable law, the IAR or RIA will notify Client and provide Client with a reasonable opportunity to take such actions as may be reasonably necessary to prevent such disclosure. IAR and RIA agree to treat data as confidential and not disclose to any third party the content, features and functionality of the Web (which are not specific to the Client), including any software, content or other intellectual property on such site. Client and the below referenced IAR and RIA acknowledge that ADP may deny access to information regarding Client and Client's Plan and any Participants obtained via the Client Service Center and/or the Web at any given time for any reason, including, but not limited to, unauthorized use of the information by the RIA and IAR, any attempt to damage the Web, or cause a general denial of access by other users to Web, or the enactment of any law or regulation requiring Participant consent to the disclosure of Participant information.

DIRECTION AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT: By signing below, the Plan Administrator hereby directs ADP, LLC to carry out its above instructions including, if applicable, to cause the Plan to pay to Payee the annual payment amount or annual basis point amount designated above. If it is directing ADP to facilitate a payment to the RIA/IAR, the Plan Administrator has confirmed with its RIA/IAR that the RIA/IAR is appropriately licensed to receive payment as described above and that the IAR's firm will accept such payment.

Furthermore, the Plan Administrator represents that (i) the payment requested is for a valid administrative expense of the Plan that is payable from the assets of the Plan in accordance with its terms and applicable law, including, but not limited to, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") and shall not constitute a non-exempt prohibited transaction under ERISA or the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (ii) it understands the calculation method and timing of the payments as described below on the following page of this Form and (iii) it has reviewed any agreement the Plan or the Plan sponsor may have with a vendor that it directs ADP to pay, and has concluded that this payment direction meets the objectives of the Plan (e.g., fully satisfies the amount owed by the employer or Plan to the vendor). The Plan Administrator understands that ADP has not reviewed any third party vendor agreements in connection with this direction and makes no representation that, and is not responsible for determining if, such payment is sufficient to satisfy any payment obligation the Plan or Plan sponsor may have to such vendor. The Plan Administrator may revoke this instruction upon five (5) business days' prior notice to ADP.

Definitions

All Available Assets

All Plan assets, regardless of whether ADP and/or its affiliates receive compensation for services it provides with respect to such investments, including assets invested in any unallocated account not attributable to an individual Participant, which shall include, without limitation, an employer contribution forfeiture account or an account held for amounts payable to missing Participants (an "Unallocated Account"). Unless elected by the Plan Administrator, all Available Assets shall not include (1) the balance of any unpaid and outstanding Participant loan. Participant shall mean any participant, beneficiary or alternate payee under a domestic relations order with an account balance under the Plan. "Participant Account" shall mean an account held under the Plan for a Participant, or (2) any portion of a Participant Account balance invested in a "self-directed brokerage" account available to Participants.

Average Daily Balance

Commencing on the effective date of the Form, for each full and partial calendar month, an amount equal to the product of (A) a monthly rate determined by dividing the annual basis point amount by twelve, prorated to reflect the number of calendar days in such full or partial calendar month and (B) the average daily balance of Plan assets invested in All Available Assets or Revenue Producing Funds, as applicable. For this purpose, the average daily balance shall be determined by reference to the balance invested in All Available Assets as of the close of each day that the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") is open for business (and for any day on which the NYSE is not open, as of the close of the last immediately preceding business day on which the NYSE is open). In the case a quarterly payment frequency is selected on the Form, the calculation will be repeated for all three months in the calendar quarter and those three sums added together to determine the Recurring Payment amount.

Period Ending Balance

If Quarterly Payments are elected, Period Ending Balance means the balance of Plan assets invested in either Revenue Producing Funds or All Available Assets, as elected, on each March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31.

If Monthly Payments are elected, Period Ending Balance means the balance as of the last day of each calendar month. If loan balances are elected in Section VI.B to be included in the calculation, the loan balances shall be determined as of the last day of the month ending immediately preceding the date as of which the Period Ending Balance is determined.

Loan Balances - calculation method and frequency explanation

Average Daily Balance calculation does not apply.

- Quarterly payment frequency: determined based as of the last day of the calendar quarter ending immediately preceding the quarter ending date.
- Monthly payment frequency: determined the last day of the month immediately preceding the month ending date for which the Average Daily Balance is determined

Period Ending Balance

- Quarterly payment frequency: the loan balances shall be determined as of the last day of the calendar quarter ending immediately preceding the date as of which the Period Ending Balance is determined.
- Monthly payment frequency: Period Ending Balance means the balance as of the last day of each calendar month. The loan balances shall be determined as of the last day of the month ending immediately preceding the date as of which the Period Ending Balance is determined.

Recurring Payments

The payments to be made to a Registered Investment Advisor, pursuant to the direction of the Plan Administrator on the RIA and Payment Information Form.

Revenue Producing Funds

Any Plan assets invested in a mutual fund, or collective investment trust under the Plan for which ADP and/or its affiliates receive compensation for services it provides with respect to such investments, including assets invested in any unallocated account not attributable to an individual Participant (as defined below), which shall include, without limitation, an employer contribution forfeiture account or an account held for amounts payable to missing Participants (an "Unallocated Account"). Revenue Producing Funds shall not include (1) any portion of a Participant Account (as defined below) balance invested in a "self-directed brokerage" account available to Participants or frozen "guaranteed investment contract" issued by an insurance company, or (2) the balance of any unpaid and outstanding Participant loan. "Participant" shall mean any participant, beneficiary or alternate payee under a domestic relations order with an account balance under the Plan. "Participant Account" shall mean an account held under the Plan for a Participant.

Calculation and Payment Methods and Timing of Payments

Calculation Method and Payments to the RIA from Plan Budget Account

ADP will process from the Plan to the Payee Recurring Payments in an amount up to, but not exceeding, the amount available in the Plan Budget Account at the time of each Recurring Payment. The amounts deposited into the Plan Budget Account by ADP shall be calculated as set forth in a separate Service Agreement Amendment, and may be more or less than the amount necessary to satisfy the Recurring Payments. Additionally, to provide for payments from a Plan Budget Account to an RIA, the sponsor must have in place an agreement with the Registered Investment Adviser to whom the payment will be made.

Calculation Method and Payments to the RIA as Fees from Trust

In the case of a "Flat Dollar" payment based on Total Annual Payment Dollar Amount, ADP will process from the Plan to the Payee Recurring Payments as follows: Commencing on the Effective Date of the Form, for each full and partial calendar quarter (or calendar month in the case of a monthly frequency) while this Agreement is in effect and thereafter, ADP will forward to the Plan an amount equal to the Total Annual Payment Dollar Amount multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the calendar quarter (or calendar month in the case of a monthly frequency), and the denominator of which is the number of days in the calendar year. This Recurring Payment amount will be prorated to reflect the number of calendar days in any partial calendar quarter (or partial calendar month in the case of a monthly frequency).

In the case of a "Basis Point" payment based on Annual Basis Point Amount, the Recurring Payment will be calculated based on the value of either Revenue Producing Funds or all Available Assets, as elected on the Form, determined based on either an Average Daily Balance or Period Ending Balance.

The portion of any Recurring Payments payable as Fee from Trust will be deducted solely from Participant Accounts on a pro-rata basis i.e., the ratio of each Participant Account balance to the aggregate of all Participant Account balances (and not from any Unallocated Account), as soon as administratively feasible, typically between twenty-five (25) and thirty-five (35) days after the end of each month or calendar quarter, as elected.

Additionally, in order for Fee from Trust payments to be made to a RIA, the sponsor must have in place an agreement with the Registered Investment Adviser to whom the payment will be made.

Timing of Payments

The Recurring Payments from solely a Fee from Trust Transaction will be made within forty-five days after the end of each month or calendar quarter, as elected on the Form. The Recurring Payments from solely a Plan Budget Account or a combination of Fee From Trust and Plan Budget Account will be made within forty-five days after the end of each calendar quarter. Payment instructions will be effective on the Effective Date stated in the form. Payments cannot be made until the Payee has completed the information required on the attached form regarding the nature of the payment, and returns the required W-9 form to ADP.
