Has your company elected the Automated Participant Notice Delivery service? If so, ADP will distribute the Summary Material of Modifications (SMM) to the appropriate recipients on your company's behalf. If you would like information about how to sign up for this time-saving service, please contact your Client Service Team.

If you have not elected the Automated Participant Notice Delivery service, as the Plan Sponsor you are responsible for distributing the Summary Material of Modifications (SMM) to the groups listed below within 210 days after the close of the plan year in which the amendment becomes effective.

- all employees who are eligible to participate in the plan,
- terminated employees with existing vested account balances,
- alternate payees under a Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) who have an account balance in the Plan, and
- any beneficiary of a deceased participant who has not taken a distribution of his/her interest in the participant's account balance.

By signing below, the Plan Sponsor authorizes the above indicated changes to the Plan's Adoption Agreement and, if applicable, agrees to distribute the SMM to the groups listed above.
