Disclaimer for Consumer Reports

Please note that an employer's use of criminal background information may be restricted by federal, state or local laws. For example, some state laws prohibit the use and/or release of information based on when the criminal activity occurred, the age of the offender and/or the type of specific offense (e.g., if it is an arrest without a conviction, an expunged record, was pardoned by the Governor, or falls under a First Offender's statute), or the disposition of the case (e.g., whether it is currently pending, or subject to an alternative disposition such as a conditional discharge). Whenever possible, CIA retrieves information directly from the courthouses. However, CIA cannot guarantee the accuracy of any instant or database searches. CIA provides the information contained in this report to Client to be used solely for a permissible employment purpose as defined in the Fair Credit Reporting Act. If the Client intends to take adverse action based in whole or in part on the contents of this report, the Client must provide the consumer with notices that it is taking adverse action and those notices must comply with the FCRA and state law. All information contained in this report is provided pursuant to the terms of the Client Services Agreement. Client further understands that it uses any and all information provided by CIA at its own risk and Client is solely liable for complying with all federal, state, and local laws. The information contained in this report is confidential and may only be accessed by authorized employees of Client, provided to the consumer about who it relates, or provided as otherwise required by law.
